Important Information about Personal Representatives

- The federal Privacy Rule requires your Health Plan to follow certain procedures before it may provide access to your Protected Health Information (PHI) to someone other than you. PHI is information about you that can reasonably be used to identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical or mental health or condition, and the provision of health care to you or the payments for that care.
- Your Health Plan will release PHI to your Personal Representative upon receipt of documentation supporting their legal authority to make health-related decisions on your behalf (for example: a valid Power of Attorney, guardianship or other legal document).
- Your Health Plan will also recognize as a Personal Representative an executor, administrator, or a person recognized by law as having authority to act on behalf of a deceased member or the member's estate.
- Your Health Plan will not however, treat someone as your Personal Representative if we reasonably believe: (1) you may be subject to domestic violence, abuse or neglect by the Personal Representative; (2) treating the person as your Personal Representative could endanger you; or (3) in the exercise of professional judgment (for example, in a licensed professional's judgement), your Health Plan decides that it is not in your best interest to treat the person as your Personal Representative.
- A Personal Representative designation will remain in effect until the member, a court order, or an applicable law revokes it.
- To assist your Health Plan in responding to this request, please complete this form by printing or typing into the spaces provided. Attach additional pages if necessary to clarify your request. Attach a copy of the document supporting your Personal Representative's legal authority to act on your behalf.
