

FORMULARY CHANGES OCTOBER 2007

Formulary Changes

Positive Formulary Changes

- Elestrin was added as Tier 3 PA to the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Elestrin was added as Tier 2 PA to the 2-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Celebrex 50mg was added as Tier 2 ST to the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Celebrex 50mg was added as Tier 2 ST to the 2-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Pataday was added as Tier 2 to the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Pataday was added as Tier 2 to the 2-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Amrix was added as Tier 3 PA to the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Amrix was added as Tier 2 PA to the 2-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Lantus Opticlik was added as Tier 3 PA to the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Lantus Opticlik was added as Tier 2 PA to the 2-Tier Medicare Formularies.
- Albuterol Sulfate/Ipratropium Bromide Solution was added as Tier 1 to all Medicare Formularies.
- Carvedilol was added as Tier 1 to all Medicare Formularies.
- Verapamil ER was added as Tier 1 to all Medicare Formularies.
- Flunisolide 29mcg/act was added as Tier 1 to all Medicare Formularies.

- Exforge was updated to be Tier 2 on all Medicare Formularies.
- Arixtra was updated to be Tier 2 on the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies.

Negative Formulary Changes

- For new starts only, Nexium will be Tier 3 for the 4-Tier Medicare Formularies effective 12/1/2007.