Here are answers to questions you may have about AmeriHealth 65 Basic.

Q. Who can join AmeriHealth 65 Basic?

A. To enroll, you must be entitled to Medicare Part A, be enrolled in Medicare Part B, and be enrolled in a Medicaid (ACCESS) program. You must live in Berks, Lancaster, Lehigh, Northampton, or York counties.

Q. How much does AmeriHealth 65 Basic cost?

A. If you are eligible to join, AmeriHealth 65 Basic has a $0 monthly premium. You may have a copay for prescription drugs.

Q. I already have Medicaid and Original Medicare. Why join AmeriHealth 65 Basic?

A. With AmeriHealth 65 Basic, you'll get more benefits and services than you have now with Original Medicare. And, you will keep your Medicaid coverage.

Q. Do I have to pick a primary care physician?

A. Yes. AmeriHealth 65 Basic is a managed care plan. That means all your health care goes through one main doctor (a primary care physician) whom you pick when you join. You'll see this doctor for most medical care. If you need to go to a specialist or to the hospital, your primary care doctor must coordinate it, except for emergency care. There's a good chance your current doctor is already in our network.

Q. Which doctors can I see?

A. AmeriHealth 65 Basic has a network of doctors, specialists, and hospitals. You can use any doctor who is part of our network. You are even eligible for round-trip transportation to plan-approved providers at no cost to you.

Q. Do I need a referral to see a specialist?

A. Yes. Keep in mind that your primary care physician coordinates all of your care except for emergencies. If you need to see a specialist, your primary care physician will give you a referral.

Q. The government picked my drug plan for me. Can I switch to AmeriHealth 65 Basic?

A. Yes. Even if the government sent you a letter and told you what drug plan you are in, you don't have to stay in it. You can switch to AmeriHealth 65 Basic and get coverage plus many more health benefits than you have now — for $0 per month. All you need to do is send in a completed enrollment form. We will do the rest.

Q. Do I have to send in my bills or claim forms?

A. No. In most cases, you'll just show your AmeriHealth 65 Basic ID card and your Medicaid ACCESS card. We will take care of the rest.

NOTE: You are required to use AmeriHealth 65[®] Basic plan providers. All health care must be provided or referred by your primary care physician except for emergencies, urgent situations, or out-of-area dialysis services within the United States. The use of non-plan providers, except for emergencies, urgent situations, or out-of-area dialysis services received within the United States, may require you to pay for the services rendered. NEITHER AMERIHEALTH HMO, INC. NOR MEDICARE WILL PAY FOR THESE SERVICES.

The federal government will not allow us to accept people with End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) unless converting from AmeriHealth individual or employer group coverage during your initial coverage election period or if your current plan stops providing coverage in your area. However, should you develop ESRD while a member of AmeriHealth 65 Basic, you cannot be disenrolled for that reason.

AmeriHealth 65 Basic is a Medicare Advantage HMO Special Needs Plan with a Medicare contract. To join AmeriHealth 65 Basic, you must be entitled to Medicare Part A, be enrolled in Medicare Part B, be enrolled in a Medicare Savings Program (including Healthy Horizons or ACCESS), and be a resident of Berks, Lancaster, Lehigh, Northampton, or York counties. You must continue to pay your Medicare Part A (if applicable) and Part B premiums, unless otherwise paid for under Medicaid (ACCESS) or by another third party.

Benefits, premiums, and cost-sharing may change on January 1, 2009. Please contact AmeriHealth 65 Basic for details. If you have special needs, this document may be available in other formats.
