

Non-hospital based preventive colonoscopy providers

AmeriHealth commercial health plans for small groups in Pennsylvania include a site-of-service differential benefit for preventive colonoscopies. This means that member cost-sharing may vary depending on where they receive service, with $0 member cost-sharing (no copayment, deductible, or coinsurance) when a member receives a preventive colonoscopy to screen for colorectal cancer at non-hospital based colonoscopy providers. Additionally, this service must be performed by a non-hospital based gastroenterologist or colon and rectal surgeon (GI professional).

The following is a list of preventive colonoscopy providers and GI professionals that are not hospital-based. Please refer to your member handbook and/or benefit booklet to determine if your plan includes this benefit for preventive colonoscopies.
